

6516206396.txt

Please try to muster up the courage to stand up to the NAB and protect the rights of satellite radio subscribers. Try for one second to remember who you are supposed to be serving.. Remember that satellite radio subscribers are affluent, educated, and have long memories. I still remember what you did to satellite tv. Did you notice what happened to cable rates in the last five years? To quote Yogi Berra " Looks like DeJa Vu all over again".